

Organization

The workshop is organized by

Matteo Pompermaier, University of Brescia
Martin Dackling, Lund University

Household finance in the Nordics (16th to 20th centuries)

Lund University
4th and 5th of June 2024

Info

The venue for the workshop is:
LUX building, Lund university
Helgonavägen 3, 22362 - Lund
Room C214.

Accommodation:
Grand Hotel Lund
Bantorget 1, 22229 - Lund

Funding

RIKSBANKENS JUBILEUMSFOND
STIFTELSEN FÖR HUMANISTISK OCH
SAMHÄLLSVETENSKAPLIG FORSKNING

The organizers want to thank the Riksbankens Jubileumsfond for funding the workshop.

Household finance in the Nordics (16th to 20th centuries)

Lund University
4th and 5th of June 2024

Organized by HEIRS

Household finance in the Nordics (16th to 20th centuries)

Program

Tuesday, June 4

09.30-09.45 Welcome

09.45-12.30 Session 1

Chair: Svante Norrhem (Lund University)

- Robin Engblom (Åbo Akademi University): In the Bishop's Service: Family Networks and Scholarly Practices in Johannes Gezelius' Household.

10.30-11.00 Coffee break

- Kathryn Gary (Lund University), Malin Nilsson (Lund University) & Matts Olsson (Lund University): Age, sex, and industriousness: Spinning incomes in Sweden 1767-1797.
- Malin Nilsson (Lund University) & Stefan Oberg (Gothenburg University): Short-term income variation and the Added Worker Effect: Evidence from urban working-class households Sweden 1913 -1914.

12.30-13.30 Lunch

13.30-15.00 Session 2

Chair: Matteo Pompermaier (Università degli studi di Brescia)

- Oscar Gelderblom (Antwerp University) & Tim van der Valk (Dutch Ministry of Finance): Coping with financial fragility: Dutch households in the Great Depression.
- Marcella Lorenzini (Università degli studi di Milano): Household finance in nineteenth-century Northern Italy"

15.00-15.30 Coffee break

15:30-17:00 Session 3

Chair: Maria Ågren (Uppsala University)

- Anton Svensson (Lund University): Household Life Cycle Living Standards in a 19th Century City: Stockholm 1800-1880.
- Jaco Zuijderduijn (Lund University): Household economy in history: including impaired and disabled persons.

19.00 Dinner at:

Mat & Destillat

Kyrkogatan 17, 222 22 Lund

Wednesday, June 5

09.00-11:45 Session 4

Chair: Elise Dermineur (Stockholm University)

- Susann Pedersen (NTNU): Credit, marriage, and household economy in fourteenth century Norway.
- Emil Gunnlaugsson (Lund University): Commercial credit and households across the North-Atlantic monopoly areas.

10:30-11:00 Coffee break

- Patrick Svensson (Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences): Farmer and farm worker households in the evolving nineteenth century Swedish credit market.

11.45-12.00 Wrap-up

12.00 Lunch

